Instructions for Publishing a PDIP

The screenshot shows the PDIP Mission Plans interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with links: PDIP, Plans, Data, Users, Search, Reports, and a year selector set to 2015. Below this, the 'Mission Plans' section is active. It displays 'SHOWING ALL MISSION PLANS FOR 2015' and a 'Draft Plans' table. The table has columns for Country, Year, Version, and Status. The 'China' row is highlighted, and its 'Checked In' status is circled in orange. To the right of the table, there's a detailed view for the 'U.S. Mission to China 2015 PDIP for China'. This view includes a table with fields: Mission (U.S. Mission to China), Country (China), Fiscal Year (2015), and Version Number (0.2 (Checked In)). Below this table are three goals listed with bullet points. At the bottom of the detailed view, a note states: 'This is version 0.2, Checked In by Hank Grover at 2014-09-26 20:07Z'. Above the detailed view, there are buttons for 'Expand all', 'Collapse all', 'Help', 'Edit', 'Publish' (circled in orange), and 'Delete Version'.

2015 PDIP for Germany

Mission:	U.S. Mission to Germany (view mission ICS plans)
Country:	Germany
Fiscal Year:	2015
Version Number:	0.1 (Imported)

► Goal 1 – As Europe's largest economy and a key transatlantic partner, Germany actively engages in the full-spectrum of global diplomatic and security challenges -- leveraging its unique diplomatic, development, and economic clout to pursue our shared objectives.

► Goal 2 – Germany works closely with the United States globally for economic prosperity and stability.

► Goal 3 – Germany is a more effective and predictable partner on counterterrorism and is a force multiplier for U.S. security and non-proliferation goals.

► Goal 4 – The German public understands and supports USG foreign policy objectives and Mission goals, and contributes to a vital transatlantic partnership.

► Goal 5 – Mission provides professional, first-class service to official and private Americans present in Germany, employing tools available to a 21st century workforce.
